

Red Stop Cards

Lead abatement measures taken by your city are successful and your housing is healthier. Advance 2 spaces

Walking school bus program started so you can walk safely to school. Advance 1 space

No sidewalks in your neighborhood make it unsafe to walk for transportation or exercise. Back 2 spaces

New park built in your neighborhood complete with walking track and playground. Advance 2 spaces

START

Local T.V. news story highlights recent violent crimes in your city, making you feel unsafe. Back 1 space

Rising gas prices take more money out of your family's monthly budget. Back 2 spaces

Breastfeeding room created in your office building as a part of new supportive breastfeeding policy. Advance 1 space

Birth of a new grandchild brings extra joy to you and your family. Advance 3 spaces

No living wage ordinance in your city. Back 2 spaces

STOP

STOP

You fall in love and develop a relationship that feels healthy. Advance 3 spaces

Clinic hours are 8-5 which is also your work schedule. You don't have any personal leave, so you can't go to the doctor. Back 2 spaces

Green Walk Cards

You and your spouse experience a healthy pregnancy and birth. Advance 4 spaces

Please do not reproduce the Life Course Game© without the written permission of CityMatch.

Admiration for Concept and Content Development: CityMatch Staff; Center for Health Services, University of California Berkeley, School of Public Health Students (2004 - Jennifer Hsu, Elaine Hanks, & Monique Webers); Graphic Design: Lingyun Zhu, CityMatch. This game was produced by CityMatch. For more information, contact: citymatch@unmc.edu, 402-522-9500.